

TURKEY AND BULGARIA

EXCHANGE NOTES ON THE MACEDONIAN TROUBLE.

The latter says Turkey must stop massacres and guarantee peace and protection to villages desiring to return home.

Sofia, Sept. 21.—The unfavorable replies of Austria and Russia to Bulgaria's last note and the fact none of the other great powers have yet replied, coupled with all allegations that one of the powers is encouraging the military party at Yildiz Kiosk, tend to create a less hopeful feeling here. There is, however, no perceptible change in the situation. Various reports are in circulation regarding negotiations between Turkey and Bulgaria looking to the solution of Macedonia difficulty.

The Dnevnik says Turkey has presented a note to Bulgaria asking for the latter's assistance in reaching a peaceable solution. Bulgaria replied that Turkey must end the massacres, withdraw her frontier forces, guarantee peace and protection to villages desiring to return to their homes, amnesty of political offenders and introduce such governmental reforms as will pacify Macedonia and Adrianople. The Bulgarian reply concludes: "If the present situation continues the Bulgarian government will be compelled to yield to public opinion and send an army to the frontier."

According to information received at revolutionary headquarters from Monastir, 120 persons perished in the flames of their burning villages near Kastoria. More than 1,200 bodies of women and children are said to be lying unburied in the fields and on the roadsides around that place.

Sofia, Sept. 21.—According to fugitives who arrived at Rila from Djoumala, a serious engagement occurred at Pekin near Melnik, eighteen miles from Salonica, in which Turks are said to have lost 500 men killed. Two columns with most villages in the district of Melnik are in hands of insurgents.

Constantinople, Sept. 21.—The Serbian government's reply to the port's representations says measures will be taken to prevent bands entering Macedonia; that a strong band which was preparing to cross the frontier had already been dispersed. The Serbian reply adds, however, that if persecution of Christians and serious reforms are not introduced the government will be unable to restrain popular agitation in Serbia.

Sofia, Sept. 21.—It is reported here that 500 Turks were killed with dynamite while fighting against insurgents in Kresna Defile.

London, Sept. 21.—A dispatch from Guitchevo on Turco-Bulgarian frontier to the Mail, reports great excitement prevails there because of a skirmish which occurred between Turkish and Bulgarian troops Saturday on the mountain range which forms the border line.

The Turkish frontier officers say the dispatch to the Times from Kubitza, Bulgaria, report insurgents have been defeated with great slaughter near Melnik and a great number of Bulgarians massacred in the neighboring villages, several of which are burning.

London, Sept. 21.—The Times correspondent at Belgrade sends a review of the situation in Serbia, in which he says military conspiracy at Nish directed against King's life is far graver than the government dare acknowledge. Of a total of 1,500 officers, 1,000 are said to be concerned in it and probably the bulk of the nation secretly sympathizes with them.

The clique of assassins, however, hold all offices, keys of arsenal and treasury and any one crossing their path is doomed. The king is surrounded and under the rule of the assassins, Minister Gencitch, in whose house the plot was hatched and who conducted secret negotiations with King Peter, is alleged to possess an incriminating letter which is kept hanging over the royal head.

MAN DROWNS CHILD.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—For two days the police have been searching for Arthur Eaton, 11-year-old boy, and to night the body was found floating in Lake Michigan. Two of Eaton's playmates declare the boy while playing with them was seized and dragged away by Albert Shupe, who accused young Eaton of stealing $5. Shupe has been arrested and several of his conflicting stories as to his whereabouts when the boy disappeared, have been proved false. It is thought Shupe dragged the boy to the lake and threw him in. There is no direct proof of this, however.

PRINCE HENRY.

Berlin, Sept. 21.—Prince Henry, of Prussia to day looked over the command of the Baltic naval station.

New York, Sept. 21.—The price of commercial silver advanced to 89 cents to day, the highest price since July, 1901.

COLE YOUNGER

Accused of Embezzling $6,000 from the Manager of a Wild West Show.

Nevada, Mo., Sept. 21.—A charge of embezzlement of $6,000 has been made against Cole Younger by the management of the wild west show with which Frank James and Younger have been associated since shortly after Younger's pardon from the Minnesota penitentiary. James and Younger had previously brought action for damages against the management on account of alleged violation of contract. Both James and Younger assert there is nothing in the embezzlement charge.

MILLER'S CASE

Washington, Sept. 21.—The case of Assistant Foreman W. A. Miller, of the government printing office, who was reinstated in his position by order of President Roosevelt, after he had been dismissed because of his expulsion from the Local Book Binders' union, came up for informal discussion at a meeting to day of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. No statement could be obtained at the conclusion of the day's proceedings.

A new feature of the case occurred when President Whitmore, of the Stereotypers' union employed by the government printing office, petitioned President Gompers in favor of Miller, urging him not to give support of the federation to the petition to President Roosevelt asking Miller's removal sent-out as a memorial from the Central Labor union of this city, and which it is said Whitmore characterized as a blunder. Whitmore is a Republican, also one of the most prominent union men of the city. It is said other strong union men in the government printing office will join Whitmore in his stand.

The president's attitude toward union labor came up before Columbia Typographical union yesterday in the form of a resolution criticizing his course in the Miller case. The purport of the resolution is very similar to that adopted by the Central Labor union. Action on the resolution, however, was indefinitely postponed following a statement by a member that a conference on the subject was soon to be held between President Roosevelt and prominent labor leaders and any action in the meantime would be inopportune.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The Central Labor union to night took supplemental action in the case of W. A. Miller and adopted strong resolutions which were sent to President Roosevelt urging Miller's dismissal. The union earnestly requests the president to modify his orders of last July to Secretary Cortelyou, in which the president says there shall be no discrimination between union and non-union labor, and they further petition that "W. A. Miller, assistant foreman in the bindery of the government printing office, be dismissed to promote the efficiency of the service on charges made by the Book Binders' union, which prove his unfitness for a public servant."

FLOODS

Portage, Wis., Sept. 21.—Traffic between Baraboo and Portage was abandoned to day, the roads are covered with from two to six feet of water, and damage to crops and property by breaking of the city levee is estimated at $30,000. United States Engineer M. J. Mann, of Oshkosh, took charge of the work on the government levee this evening.

Much apprehension is still felt over the safety of the government dyke, as water continues to seep through the levee in numerous places.

At Prairie DuChien the Mississippi river rose sixteen inches since last night, although the Wisconsin came up twenty. Large tracts of corn north of this city are under water and damage will be heavy.

London, Sept. 21.—King Edward is reported to have approved the appointment of Austin Chamberlain to be chancellor of exchequer; Arnold Forster, to be secretary for war; Mr. Broderick, secretary for war, to be secretary for India; Lord Selbourne, to be secretary for colonies. No official confirmation of appointments has yet been forthcoming.

ROBBERS WERE FRUSTRATED.

PLANS TO ROB AN EXPRESS CAR FAIL.

Assaulted the Wrong Express Messenger and Are Forced to Flee Without Securing Money—Safe Contained $25,000.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—The bold attempt by two men to lock themselves in a Michigan Central railroad express car with the express messenger overpowered him after the train had left the yards and then rifle two safes in the car, was frustrated Sunday evening when the plans of the would-be robbers miscarried. Wm. Gaughlin, expressman, was knocked unconscious bound and gagged in the express car. Then the men discovered he was not the express messenger who has charge of the car and fearing detection fled.

The express messenger, who has charge of the car, left Chicago this morning with one guard and $25,000 in two safes in the car. Nothing was taken from the expressman. Property in the car was untouched.

PROPERTY IS LOST

New York, Sept. 21.—The directors of the Consolidated Lake Superior company, after a meeting to day gave up the attempt to find some plan for saving the properties of the company which are in the hands of Speyer & Co. As collateral for loans of $5,000,000 made by the banking house to the company some time ago, and announced the stockholders were entirely at the mercy of the banking firm, which can sell out the stock of the operating companies in the Consolidated Lake Superior company any time they see fit. With the announcement of this decision came also a practical acknowledgment they believed the plans for financing the company to a sound position were blocked at every point by the financial interests that are behind the rival steel companies in the United States.

After the meeting, speaking for other directors, E. H. Sanborn said: "Nothing has been done because there was nothing that could be done. We did not come here to consider any plan that had been formulated. We came here to try to find one, and we did not. No feasible plan was presented. The directors can do nothing. While the situation is now in the hands of Speyer & Co., directors can only wait and see what Speyer & Co. will do."

Charles H. Tweed, representing the Speyer syndicate, referring to the action of the directors of the Consolidated Lake Superior company, said to day: "We have been very lenient with the company. We will probably foreclose loan, selling collateral pledged with us at auction. The syndicate will seek reimbursement for its outlay." A suggestion the syndicate might take over the company and run it pending organization, is not seriously entertained by Tweed.

APPEARED IN COURT.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 21.—Leopold J. Stern, of Baltimore, Md., wanted in Washington on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States government, appeared in court this afternoon. The warrant charges him with having wrongfully obtained two money warrants from the United States postoffice department, one for $5,029 and one for $3,272. The depositions state that in June, 1898, a contract was made by the postal department with Stern for the supply of four different varieties of letter carriers' satchels. Some of these were to be equipped with straps. The allegation is that Stern, after being supplied at the instance of the department with these straps by another contractor, charged their cost to the department which had already paid other contractors for them.

It is expected the unionists will be ordered to refuse to return to work Thursday and that local trades unions will be asked to refuse to handle marble handled in shops employing non-union men.

The local members of the Marble Cutters' union decided to night that under no circumstances would they apply for work to their old employers so long as they run "open" shops.

SUES ASSOCIATION.

New York, Sept. 21.—Sam W. Hoke, advertising and poster agent of this city, to day filed a complaint in the United States circuit court against the Associated Bill Posters and Distributors of United States and Canada, in which he claims $60,000 damages from them on the ground the association is an illegal trust and combination, operating in violation of the federal anti-trust law. The Associated Bill Posters are being sued through A. B. Beal, of Sioux City, Iowa, their treasurer, who is also made an individual defendant.

Hoke charges the association has been engaged in arbitrarily filling minimum rates to be charged for bill posting throughout the United States, although reference to reasonable value of competition.

COURT MARTIAL CASE.

Washington, Sept. 21.—A complete record of the court martial in the case of Assistant Paymaster Nicholson on the Asiatic station, received at the navy department to day, contains severe criticism by Rear Admiral Evans, of members of the court which tried Nicholson because of the inadequacy of the punishment inflicted by the court. It was alleged that while on short at Chefoo, China, Nicholson became intoxicated and assaulted an elderly civilian. The sentence of the court was that Nicholson be reduced five numbers in his grade. Evans, reviewing the case, says the evidence was of such character that the sentence should have been nothing less than a dismissal from the navy. Three officers of the court recommended clemency.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

A GOOD MAN AND TRUE. L. A. BARR, OF ARCADIA, NOMINATED FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

Governor Yates is Present and Makes a Stirring Speech—Is Indorsed for Another Term With Ringing Resolutions.

THE CONVENTION.

The Republican county convention passed off Monday in a manner that showed the forces of the party to be alive and awake to the duties of the hour and determined to work for the success of the body to which the county owes so much. The people who went there to see a first class family Republicans are not given to that sort of quarrel were sadly disappointed, for difficulty in naming the candidate for county commissioner, for good men and true were offered and in due time it was ascertained which one of the three the people preferred. It was in refreshing contrast with the last Democratic convention held in the same place. Then the powers behind the throne pulled the strings and the rest danced promptly to their order, but in this case the delegates of the voters came together and endeavored to discover what was the best thing to do, and then like free men without coercion proceeded to do it.

Of course the great interest centered around the question of endorsing Governor Yates for re-nomination. There were those in the body who thought it unwise at this time and they were not at all trammelled in saying so, and there was an honest and friendly interchange of sentiments on the subject and it is fair to add that while several saw fit to oppose instructions for re-nomination of Governor Yates, there was not an unfriendly sentiment toward him expressed by the most ardent speaker, the desire simply being to do what was best for the party and the gentleman himself, and all were loyal to him.

When the result was announced all acquiesced in it manfully and will go forward and do all that is possible for the success of the ticket. The people who came there to see a fine quarrel had to go away unsatisfied. The presence of the representatives of the Chicago press was noticeable. Watch a flock of buzzards. They soar over and away from dozens of fields containing live, healthy stock, but when they think they spy a putrid carcass they swoop down upon it at once. It is no compliment to the buzzards to compare the Chicago trust press to them, but so it is, and of course the Inter Ocean is excepted. In this case the carcass they hoped to see was lacking and if truthful they went away disappointed. The address of the governor was a calm, dispassionate effort and could not help winning the careful attention and approval of all fair men. He appealed to the hearts of his audience and unbecomingly himself as to old friends and he was heard with profound and respectful attention. The first run of the campaign has been sounded and it will reverberate all along the line until victory is with the Republican party.

We have a noble state and national administration and the people will be glad to continue both in power next year.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

The Republican county convention met in the circuit court room Monday afternoon and the expected interest in the occasion brought out a large attendance, while every precinct in the county was represented and with one or two exceptions each delegation had the full number. The Chicago press was fully represented, as was the Globe-Democrat. The meeting was called to order by the county central committee chairman, James H. Danskin, who requested S. W. Nichols to read the call in the absence of Secretary Morrissey, who is sick.

Andrew Russel, seconded by J. J. Reeve, nominated John R. Davis for temporary chairman, and there being no other nominees, the gentleman was chosen unanimously. As he stepped to the chair he was greeted with applause and returned his thanks for the honor conferred upon him.

E. M. Vasconcellos nominated A. L. Hamilton, of Waverly, for secretary. Edward Whitmer nominated W. R. T. Masters, of Waverly, for assistant secretary, and all were elected unanimously.

H. M. Ticknor moved a committee of five on credentials be named by the chair, which carried, and Messrs. H. M. Ticknor and F. L. Sharpe, of Jacksonville; Benjamin Davenport, of Alexander; A. D. McLain, of Concord and George Scurlock, of Jacksonville, were named.

The roll call showed all precincts represented and no contesting delegations.

M. Minter moved the temporary organization be made permanent; carried unanimously.

The chair thanked the convention for the second honor and made a plea for harmony and good will and the expedition of business. He promised to rule and govern the audience with due regularity and impartiality and give all a chance to be heard. He said the convention had assembled to name the man who would be the next county commissioner (cheers), for it was a fact that the Republican party in this county never had a better opportunity for victory.

W. R. T. Masters moved that all delegations not entirely filled be entitled to cast the full vote. Carried.

T. H. Rapp moved the convention proceed to nominate a candidate for commissioner. Carried.

H. H. Bancroft moved the roll of precincts be called and those having candidates present their names. Carried.

On behalf of Alexander, Dr. S. G. Weagley nominated George Mall and W. H. Rowe seconded.

On behalf of the Arcadia delegation, H. M. Ticknor, by request, presented the name of L. A. Barr. Dr. Ogram, of Litterberry, seconded.

W. B. Wright, of Murrayville, presented the name of John Mutch, and F. L. Sharpe, of Jacksonville, seconded.

The chair was instructed to name a committee on credentials and Messrs. George E. Sybrant, Charles S. Rannels, M. Minter, F. J. Heintz, James H. Danskin, W. L. Alexander and A. M. Upham were announced.

The vote on candidate for commissioner was then taken. The first ballot stood: Mutch, 54; Hall, 56; Barr, 65.

The second stood: Mutch, 45; Hall, 58; Barr, 73.

Mr. Mutch withdrew and the final vote stood: Barr, 100; Hall, 75.

On motion of Judge Layman Mr. Barr's nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. Barr came forward and thanked the convention in an effective manner and promised to do his best to see all the voters and get their support at the polls, and urged the hearty co-operation of all members of the party in the campaign.

Mr. Hall pledged his cordial support to the ticket and indorsed the nominee fully.

Mr. Mutch declared himself a true Republican and loyal to Mr. Barr and said he would be heard from in due time all right.

J. Marshall Miller then rose and said substantially: "The convention is to be congratulated on the manner of the nomination to day. It was fair and honest throughout and the work was done in a manner calculated to win the confidence and support of all members of the party. Mr. Barr will need more than one pair of shoes for this campaign, if he sees every body, as he should and will. Out on the hills they rear good men and swift runners, and he will make excellent time in the race and get there, too, at the end. I am glad to see that the other candidates took their defeat so gracefully; it was the manly thing to do and I feel certain they will stand to the ticket nominated and do all they can to elect it."

"I understand there will be some resolutions soon introduced which will be in danger of making trouble, and as we came here primarily to name a candidate for commissioner and that work is accomplished I move we now adjourn." (Cries of "No," "no," "Free speech," "Let us hear all who want to speak.")

The chair decided that the committee on resolutions be heard and the chairman of the committee, James H. Danskin, reported for the majority of five as follows:

We endorse the administration of that magnificent American and pure patriot, Theodore Roosevelt, who has demonstrated that he is the president of all the people—not of one class, but of all classes—and we take pleasure in declaring for him for re-nomination in 1904.

We congratulate the people of Illi-now that in the United States senate we have, representing us and supporting the president, two United States senators of exalted patriotism, of long experience and tried party loyalty, the Hon. Shelby M. Cullom and Hon. Albert J. Hopkins.

We are proud of the record made by our worthy Morgan county fellow-citizen, Richard Yates, in the discharge of his duties as governor of the state of Illinois.

At Carrollton, Eldorado and Danville he has demonstrated that he favors the rule of law instead of the rule of the mob.

He is the first governor of Illinois to initiate a movement, finally successful, to abolish the illegal contract labor system in our penitentiaries. In obedience to the Republican platform and pledges, by his initiative, a civil service bill, acceptable to the best thought of the state, was offered in the legislature, received his active support, and was defeated through no fault of his.

The three state institutions at Jacksonville, conducted as they are with economy, humanity and progressiveness, are but illustrations of the economical, honest and business-like administration of state affairs, generally during his term of office.

His votes of extravagant salary and other appropriation bills, thus saving to the state over one million dollars are worthy of the highest commendation.

His administration has been assailed by the unRepublican press of Chicago, without cause or justification, and we, the Republicans of Morgan county, knowing this to be a fact, repudiate these malicious and uncalled-for assaults. We have the utmost faith in his ability and integrity, and therefore take this opportunity of expressing ourselves in opposition to these maligners.

The Republicans of his home county have confidence in the continued success of his administration and emphatically declare in favor of his re-nomination.

We invoke the support of every Republican of Morgan county and of all our fellow citizens in behalf of the election of our candidate for county commissioner this day nominated, and we assure the people that with his election the affairs of Morgan county will be conducted in a business-like manner.

Charles S. Rannels, for the minority of two, reported as follows:

We, the Republicans of Morgan county, in convention assembled, renew our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, which have brought peace, prosperity and happiness to our country.

We honor the stalwart manhood and Republicanism of President Theodore Roosevelt, whose honorable, courageous and statesman-like course we unqualifiedly commend.

We congratulate the people of the state that they will be so ably represented in the upper house of congress by Senators Shelby M. Cullom and Albert J. Hopkins, whose wise and honorable course in the past is a guarantee of what may be expected of them in the future.

We heartily endorse the present safe and wise Republican administration of state affairs and endorse the official acts of our honored townsman Gov. Richard Yates.

Charles S. Rannels.
Frank J. Heint.

H. H. Bancroft, of No. 8, said:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: I desire to make a few brief remarks speaking to the adoption of the minority report that has just been submitted. First of all, let me ask of this convention the calm and deliberate consideration of this matter. I feel that the adoption of the minority report will not only conserve the interests of our distinguished fellow townsman, Gov. Richard Yates, provided he is a candidate for re-nomination to the high office of governor of this state, however, so far as this convention knows, he has not so declared himself; but it will conserve the interests of the Republican party of Morgan county, which is vastly superior to any personal consideration. It becomes every delegate here to consider carefully his action in voting on this matter. I want to see harmony in the ranks of the Republican party in this county, and for one, I expect to abide by the decision of the majority in this convention. I have always supported the whole party ticket and have been for Governor Yates ever since time he has been the standard bearer of the Republican party in any capacity, and if he is the nominee in 1904 I shall be for him again, fighting in the front ranks. I cannot, however, see the wisdom in adopting the majority report at this time, and believe the adoption of the minority report will prove a wise course, not only for the present, but also for the future."

W. H. Rowe—I deem it impolitic at this time to endorse the report of the majority, when there are those who strongly differ from them. Those who are in office, or want it will, of course, be for the report of the majority; but we must regard some other things. If we would succeed in this county we must be united. It is simply too bad to nominate for commissioner so good a man as Luther Barr and then sacrifice him as you will if the report of the majority is adopted. You wrong the candidate, the party in this county and the people, for it is to their interest to elect a Republican this fall. I am fully willing to endorse the state administration. The appointments of Governor Yates are in the main good ones, nor do I oppose the report from personal grounds. We stood by him when he was named for judge, congressman at large, but do not favor his political course, and cannot be for him. Let us be harmonious and stand together on a report we can all endorse.

Dr. Weagley—The way to stand together and be harmonious is to adopt the minority report.

J. J. Reeve—I can see no good in discussing this question. All are decided to be for Barr and all, too, have decided on how they will vote on the question of endorsing the resolutions, and I move the previous question.

Jas. H. Danskin—I ask leave to speak and will thank the gentleman if he will withdraw his motion, which precludes the discussion farther of the question.

Mr. Reeve—I will withdraw it if the gentleman wishes to speak.

Mr. Danskin—It has been intimated that there is no need of farther discussion. I have some things to say. I do not object to the minority report, but it does not go far enough. It contains nothing with reference to the nomination of Roosevelt in 1904. Ohio did not think it premature to endorse him. I favor the same thing now. I have no desire to be personal. I believe there is in the hearts of all an honest feeling of loyalty to the state administration. I do not say it is either right or wrong to stand by Yates. We can differ on this question and still be friends. Some good friends of the minority have been taken to high pinnacles of the earth almost if they would come out for some prominent state office and thus overshadow the candidacy of Governor Yates in Morgan county, but they flatly refused. Four years ago in No. 8 Mr. Rannels and I were rolled flatly into the ditch by the Yates crowd, but I stood by the ticket and worked as hard as any man could work for the nominees of the party. I have no objections to hearing from consistent Republicans, who are for their party ticket always, but I want to hear from the bolters; men who in the past have not been willing to stand by the nominees of the party. We have several here in this convention. The time may come when these men will want friends or may have friends up for office and want very much to see them elected, and then they will want the support of all. Last year it was confidently predicted that the ticket would all be defeated because of this same lack of harmony, but we elected two of our candidates and cut down the majority of some others who possibly might have been elected if all our own party had honestly stood by the nominees. Mr. Bancroft says be deliberate and discuss the question. By all means; and let us do away with all feelings of revenge. I have heard of a number who say they want to oppose these resolutions for the sake of "getting even" with some one. Every precinct has been fully canvassed and all know how they will vote and but for the fault of some of those who are getting even, they would have voted with us to day. Governor Yates was born and reared in this county and here he has had his trials and triumphs. Four years ago I went over the state with him in his canvass for nomination, and I know something of what is in him. He has been most cruelly maligned and traduced and maliciously attacked by the Chicago trust press and I want to ask you if you are willing to play into the hands of those who are so basely traducing our fellow townsman. Aug. 17 the Chicago Record-Herald contained an item on the first page paraded with great headlines and prominence in all things as far as possible of the governor with giving permission to a 12-year-old child to work in a dance hall. It deplored the deed and commented on it in every manner. Next day on the last page it took it all back in an insignificant item of a few lines. I have both articles here for the inspection of any who care to see them. Can any paper be fair and do such things? I appeal to the loyalty of all present to stand by the majority report. Few, if any, of Governor Yates' friends failed to stand by the ticket last year, and at all times so, but are here to day in this convention. I do not know how they got here. I know that I tried to be left off of the delegation from my district but my friends insisted on putting me there, and I do not understand how it is that men will force themselves through proxies and the like, to get into this convention, when they are not in harmony with the prevailing sentiment, and for the governor of the state. We can elect a county commissioner and be honest at the same time in the support of Governor Yates.

F. L. Sharpe—I rise dispassionately to discuss this question for the good of the party. I do not conduct a school of journalism. I do not know of a man on my side who would say an evil word of Governor Yates, or President Roosevelt. It is unfair to loyal Republicans to accuse them of malice. I have the good of the party at heart, as they have. Any man has the right to enter the race for public preferment. It is not the business of the convention to bring state politics into it. Has the day come in Morgan county when a public citizen who agrees to a place on the state ticket has the door barred against him because the county has a candidate already?

A voice—"What do you want?"

(Laughter.)

Do you mean to lock the doors against all but one. A year ago I begged the county convention then to keep out of state politics, but it failed to do so and you know the result. Has not this county always been loyal to Governor Yates? Are any of the friends of the majority afraid to trust the people of the Republican party till spring? Unless some other Morgan county man wants a fine state office I am for Governor Yates and next spring if no one else comes forward I am ready to pledge that I will vote for instructions to the convention to permit him to name the delegates to the nominating convention. Then why try to put collars around our necks.

George Huntton—How long since has it been dangerous to endorse a state administration. Four years ago the men who are so strongly against it now were for it. Why their change of heart. You know it is perfectly fair to endorse the majority report if you want to do it. Some come here not elected by the people, but through proxies and they know how they got them and why they wanted to get into the convention. If I were not a delegate from my own district I would never show my head in a convention. You all know that Governor Yates would burn off his right arm to the shoulder before he would be against one of you who was aspiring to any office. He has been true in spite of what the Chicago press has had to say about him. The Chicago syndicate press hounded to the death one governor, John R. Tanner, and now they are trying the same thing on our present governor. There is but one honest Republican paper in Chicago and that is the Inter Ocean. This same newspaper combination has supported Carter Harrison against various candidates on the Republican ticket. In the recent judicial elections it was for Democrats largely and still it has the effrontery to claim to be Republican. I believe the people will not be fooled with such rot. If you do not want to stand by Governor Yates, a man of your own county, born and raised here, then for whom are you? All can see through this plainly. We have nothing to gain by fighting among ourselves. The time was never more propitious for the election of the county ticket if we will stand together. There is no danger to the ticket in endorsing Governor Yates. I worked hard for the county ticket last fall and shall do so again.

Mr. McLain, of Concord—I have been amused at the opponents to the majority report. If the Republican party has not been fair to these men, then I do not know what that means. I will remember when Mr. Rannels was sent to Springfield as a delegate how we helped him along to good places on a committee until he kept on to the chairmanship of the state central committee. I was glad to help Mr. Sharpe to the nomination for the legislature. For another of these men I did all I could to get him into the state's attorneyship and for still another years. (Laughter.) It certainly seems to me they have had fair treatment at the hands of the party. I know all you boys want harmony. When Governor Yates was a candidate for congressman-at-large, when he was up for county judge and when he aspired to be governor I was for him. What is the Chicago press doing here to day? Does it follow for all he county conventions around? Not much. I got my Republicanism from the Chicago Tribune in the years gone by, but now I am ashamed to have it come into the house and I give notice to stop the paper the 16th of October next, when the time will be out. Of course I want you to adopt the report of the majority.

Charles S. Rannels—Several gentlemen have seen fit to call me by name to day. I wish to state that after I got the delegates from Morgan county I can't remember any man helping me to anything; I was generally able to care of myself in state politics. I am not an enemy of Governor Yates, nor have I any feeling against him, but I believe in doing things decently and in order. No other candidate for governor has asked an endorsement before the convention to name delegates to the state convention had been called. Remember these irregularities will rise up to bother you some day. Avoid them. I said to Mr. Danskin that if I had it in my power next Jan. 1 I would favor letting Governor Yates name the delegates he wished sent to the state convention, but I am not for resolutions endorsing his candidacy at this time for the resolution is out of time and place. If ever there was a more consistent Republican than I have been please let him stand up. I do not say how wise I have been, but I stand second to none in devotion to the ticket. I am not here as a calamity howler nor do I expect the passage of the minority resolutions to defeat any candidate. The best victories we ever had were when we fought like tigers in the convention and when the majority was announced the others took of their hats and said, "Long live the king."

J. Marshall Miller—What are we here for anyhow? To abuse the Chicago press? Eighteen months ago I pleaded with the Republican convention not to instruct the chairman of this convention, when a candidate for state senator to vote for Hopkins for United States senator if elected. Has the governor asked to endorse him for re-nomination? Mr. Danskin and I discussed these things and yet were friends and when he wanted speakers last fall Reeve, Heint and myself stood ready to go through all kinds of weather to carry on the work. We should have proceeded to adjourn when our work was done and not have gone for to tickle the ears of the Chicago press reporters and appeal to the galleries. The rank and file of Morgan county Republicans do not like instructions. Why not let the campaign go on without them? We all know that instructions did for us four years ago. The Chicago press is a danger to the county ticket if these majority resolutions were passed. The same thing was done once before and I am not afraid of it this time. If you vote down the majority resolutions the Chicago press will come out in flaming headlines telling gleefully how the governor was defeated in his own county. When the Ohio convention wanted to endorse the candidacy of President Roosevelt for a second term Senator Hanna opposed it, but when he saw the people, or a majority of them, were for it he took back what he had said and manfully accepted the situation.

Mr. Rannels—May I ask the gentleman a question?

The chair—With his permission.

Judge Layman—Certainly.

Mr. Rannels—What did you get your information? Was it not from this same Chicago press?

Judge Layman—No sir. It got it from the Inter Ocean and the Jacksonville Journal.

Mr. Rannels—Then it must have been correct.

Judge Layman—We should all be proud of Morgan county. It has furnished the state three governors; Governor Duncan, one of the best in the earlier days; Governor Yates, the best war governor in the land and now a young man who has risen worthily to the proud place he occupies and you would down him here to day, but the efforts will not succeed. You are simply supplying capital to the Chicago trust press, which has been trying to destroy Governor Yates, but let me assure them that Morgan county will supply the state with the next governor. (Applause.)

A committee consisting of John R. Robertson, Thomas Crouse, of Murrayville, Dr. Kennelbrew, J. D. Goveia and Harry Cobb, was appointed to escort the governor to the convention. As the gentleman appeared he was greeted with loud applause, which lasted for some time. He was presented to the convention and said substantially:

To the Republicans of Illinois: I hereby formally announce that I am a candidate for re-nomination by the Republican party for the office of governor of Illinois. Four years ago, in 1899, I announced on Sept. 1 that I would seek the nomination for governor. In the announcement made at that time I said:

"Illinois is a royal realm. It is a majestic empire. It is a republic in itself. It is the fair abode of a patriotic, powerful and progressive people. It is the home of a most high-minded manhood, a most noble womanhood and a most precious childhood. Five million strong, its people are worth serving well, and I want to serve them with the best service in my power. To hope to be governor of this state is, in my judgment, to cherish a most laudable ambition. Should I be nominated and elected I would hope to be guided by right ideals, trying to be for the things that are right in the Republican party and been so far as the rank and file are concerned by all its history."

I represent no combination. I want to be the candidate of the people. I believe the people will be in power in the state convention in 1904. I have been successful in that kind of conventions, namely, those controlled by the rank and file of the party. I have always taken all the people into my confidence in all political plans and am not afraid now to place my case entirely and absolutely in their hands. If I am then defeated, I shall accept the decision complacently and take the stump as usual for the whole ticket. But I hope to be nominated and elected because I have never appealed to the people in vain."

You honored me with the nomination at the great convention at Peoria, May 9, 1900. During the ensuing six months I actively canvassed the state and in substantially every county I personally and verbally gave to the voters the following pledge:

"For myself, fellow citizen, I can only say that I believe it is the duty of every man to offer himself to the public service, in the very highest capacity of which either he or his friends deem him to be capable. So believing, I have tendered my services and, if the people shall see fit to prefer me to the high office of governor of Illinois, than which there is no higher, with one exception, and that exception the presidency of the United States, I will endeavor to do well my duty. I will try to serve the state faithfully. I will try, if elected, to make good appointments. If, by mistake, I make bad ones, I will rectify the mistake and remove the appointees. I will endeavor to see that the state institutions are managed with economy, efficiency and humanity. I will try to place them under boards and bureaus of good business men. I will endeavor, in the appointment of commissioners of parks in our great cities, to appoint men of high character, of unquestioned qualifications, able to perform their duties without interference by the executive, and so long as they will perform those duties with an eye single to the public service I would spare them executive interference. I will try to better the public service."

On Nov. 6, I was elected by 65,513 majority. Thirty-two months have elapsed since my inauguration, Jan. 14, 1901. During these months I have endeavored to faithfully fulfill the pledges made by me. If I have, in whole or in part, failed to fulfill it, the failure was not an intentional or conscious one. As I said at the time, mistakes are always possible. Some mistakes have been made. An honest effort has been made to right and correct those mistakes and I confidently submit the whole record to you to consider and to examine. Moreover, during this period I have continually endeavored, to the utmost of my power, to incorporate into legislative and official action the policies and principles set forth in the Republican state platforms of 1900 and 1902.

A careful and impartial investigation of the record will show that the economy record, the efficiency record, the appointment record, the law and order record, the labor record, the legislative record, the political record, and the whole record of the Republican party and of this administration in Illinois, during the past two years and eight months, have been good and not bad.

Of course there are, as there always have been, men more anxious to build up themselves than to build up the Republican party in order to build themselves up. Such men are more anxious to destroy than to encourage Republican officials. Such men will not and do not approve this administration, and will not and do not approve any administration which does not submit to their control. Such men will not admit that this administration is good and not bad. I, however, feel fully justified in asserting that were I and all my associates and appointees to die to-morrow, the Republican party in Illinois could and would go forth to victory in 1904 upon this very identical record. You and the whole state know this statement to be true.

In 1900, ten months ago, this record was assailed and attacked in all its parts, and in all parts of the state, by our inveterate and vigorous political foe the Democratic party, arrayed behind leaders as able and alert and tireless and fearless as ever led any party. At that election, on Nov. 4, 1900, the people of Illinois, at the polls, rendered their verdict. The verdict was a sweeping approval. The vote on the treasurer, the head of the ticket, was a purely political test, a test that as a test the people voted their confidence in the Republican party and the Republican administration of Illinois by the splendid majority of 69,770. To realize the full force of this decision by the people, it must be remembered that President McKinley's majority in Illinois vote in 1900 was only 5,164 less than

In 1900 was 94,921. The Republican majority of President McKinley, for whom Democrats voted by the thousand.

Moreover, in addition to the usual contest between the parties for the control of the legislature, there was an additional issue at the polls in 1902, namely, whether the people, by their representatives, should send to the United States senate the man endorsed by the Republican party at its state convention in May, 1902, namely, Albert J. Hopkins. It is sometimes asserted that it is much more difficult to carry an election when the senatorial candidate has been nominated by the state convention. The decision upon this point was, however, as decisive as the other. Of 152 representatives, 88 Republicans were chosen as against 65 of all other parties, and of the 26 senators, 20 were chosen by the Republicans as against 6 Democrats, the vote on joint ballot standing 124 Republicans as against 89 of all other parties. This overwhelming victory was especially remarkable in view of the fact that everywhere the charge had been made that the governor and his friends were trying to dictate both the state and the senatorial situation. One of two things must be true; either the people did not believe the charge of dictation, or the people did believe in the attitude of the governor and his friends and ratified it.

I am satisfied that, after close inspection, the people of the state have found nothing disgraceful or harmful in the present administration, as conducted through the various departments and institutions. On the other hand, I believe the people regard it as an honest and worthy administration. The constitution of Illinois does not prohibit a governor from seeking a second term. I know of no reason why, after two years and eight months of experience, I should, sixteen months before the expiration of my term or 18 months before the next state convention, decided not to be a candidate. There may be and probably will be another issue in the ensuing campaign. This is whether the Republican party of Illinois, with free and true Republicanism, shall be its own master and run itself, retaining its own servants and rewarding its own champions, or whether it shall, like a slave, bow the knee to, and take orders from an un-American, un-Republican, un-Democratic newspaper oligarchy in the city of Chicago, as heartless and remorseless as any tyrant or assassin ever known. That man serves well his party, and for that matter, all parties, who thwarts the aims of this new despotism in Illinois. Its success is not merely a question of personal or passing moment to any one. Its success would strike deep at the foundations of all free government. It would fasten upon Illinois a newspaper dynasty corruptly controlling nominations and legislation more dictatorially than was ever the case in boss-ridden and Tammany-driven New York. The Republican party can be its own master. The Republican party of Illinois can run itself. So can all other parties. I confidently call upon men of all parties to aid in liberating Illinois politics, of all parties, from that editorial oligarchy.

Personally, I prefer to submit my case by simply presenting the record of this administration. But, if the Chicago trust press continues, as heretofore, to represent that I have not kept my oath, I

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Clothing of Marie Myer ignited by Gas Stove—Extinguished by Prompt Action of Her Father.

Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock, Marie Myer, the ten-years-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mayer, had a narrow escape from being severely burned.

She went to the gas stove to heat some water, and in lighting the gas the flames popped out and ignited the apron she was wearing. In a moment the whole front of her dress was in flames, and she ran screaming from the summer kitchen into the dining room. Mr. Mayer, who was in the sitting room at the time, heard her scream and ran to her assistance, and met her as she entered the door.

Realizing in a moment the danger she was in, he immediately wrapped his left arm around her throat, as the flames were then leaping in her face, and drawing her to him, endeavored to smother them and tear away the burning fragments of her clothing. He soon succeeded in stopping the spread of the flames, and with the assistance of other members of the family they were extinguished; not, however, before Mr. Mayer had been severely burned on the left hand and forearm. His daughter, however, escaped without injury. The burns about the hand were quite deep and the whole arm had to be carefully bandaged and it will be some time before the injured member will be well again.

Although badly injured himself, Mr. Mayer, by his prompt action, saved his daughter from a most severe and painful injury.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Ernest German, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. German, of Buckhorn, celebrated his 18th birthday Friday evening. A large number of friends and relatives were present and all had a delightful time. A sumptuous dinner was served, a part of which was a forty-pound roast pig. Games and other amusements served to pass the evening most pleasantly.

The following were present from this city: Mr. and Mrs. George Bader, Mrs. George Weigand, Mrs. Lee Weigand and daughters, Frances, Ferneda and Leta; Mrs. Rider and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. Bader and daughter. Mr. Becker, of Alexander, Mrs. Fred Weigand, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Miller. Many handsome presents were received by the host.

SEEKS STATE OFFICE.

County Treasurer Richard Sullivan, of Sangamon county, was an interested spectator at the Republican county convention Monday. Mr. Sullivan has announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for state treasurer. He is quite well known here, where he formerly attended Illinois college in 1895. Since that time he has been active in the local politics of Springfield and Sangamon county, and was elected treasurer a year ago by a handsome majority. Although a comparatively young man, he has shown a great deal of political sagacity and this combined with his personal popularity, has not only made him a factor in his home county, but he has also become known throughout the central portion of the state. Should he continue in his determination to be a candidate before the next Republican state convention, he will doubtless stand well up in the lists.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. Few traveling attractions carry such a thorough scenic equipment as "A Thoroughbred Tramp." Everything used in the play is carried, including a very realistic street scene in the city of Ouray, Colo., a baggage room, two moving trains, a mountain and canon scene and a cave in the Rockies. The play itself is one of the strongest in this class of dramas, the tramp part being without doubt the greatest ever written, and while the comedy element predominates, there is enough of the dramatic to more than satisfy theatre goers whose taste leans to the stronger drama. RESIGNS FROM BOARD

Gen. John C. Black Retires from Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Board.

The following communication was received by Governor Yates Monday from Gen. John C. Black, who, because of the larger duties coming to him through his election as national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, has resigned his commission as member of the board of trustees at the Soldiers' and Sailors' home at Quincy:

Headquarters, Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' home, Quincy, Ill., Sept. 21, 1903.

Hon. Richard Yates, Governor of Illinois, Springfield, Ill.

Dear Governor: I have the honor to tender herewith my resignation as member of the board of trustees of Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' home, to take effect Oct. 1, 1903, or as soon thereafter as your excellency may deem best.

During my term as trustee I have entertained high sentiments of regard for you and your exercise of the duties of your high office. I resign now because it is not possible for me properly to do my duty here and at the same time discharge the new duties that now involve upon me through the action of my comrades. Very respectfully yours,

John C. Black.

General Black was appointed as the Democratic representative on the board, and although resigning from this board, he will still remain the chairman of the Illinois commission recently appointed by Governor Yates to erect monuments on the site of the siege of Vicksburg, for which the legislature made ample appropriation. He is also a member of the United States board of managers of the national soldiers' home, to which position he was appointed by President Roosevelt.

MAYOR DAVIS ACCEPTS.

A committee of the public library board, consisting of President J. G. Capps, Dr. C. E. Black and E. M. Kinman, waited on Mayor Davis yesterday to have him make a short talk on the occasion of Dr. Dana's lecture here. He has consented to speak upon that date and in view of the fact that this is the first public meeting at the library since it was finished, President Capps, of the library board, will give over the keys to Mayor Davis, who will have charge of the exercises.

A FINE COLT.

George Massey, of Ashland, drove through the city Monday a very fine 3-year-old, high bred mare, and it is his intention to exhibit the animal at the state fair, where, unless something way above the ordinary in horse flesh is offered his horse will undoubtedly share the prizes.

OBTAINS RIGHT TO MARRY.

New York, Sept. 20.—It has been learned that John Montgomery Ward, once famous as a ball player, and now an attorney, wedded Thursday Miss Katherine Waas. Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hills, of Plymouth church, officiated. Ten years ago Mr. Ward was divorced from Helen Dauvray, an actress, but the decree prohibited him remarrying. Five years ago he met Miss Waas and fell in love with her.

During the courtship Mr. Ward began to devise ways and means to marry her. He sought legal means to annul the prohibitory decree, which was done by Justice Herrick.

UNDER NEW NAME.

The Illinois School for the Deaf have issued the first edition of their school paper for this year and the name of "New Era" has been changed to the "Illinois Advance." The issue contains a large sized electrotype of the superintendent, Charles P. Gillett, and devotes the entire front page to the facts regarding his appointment, together with a review of his career as an instructor. In regard to the change of name the following article reads:

"It is not always wise to rechristen a publication that has a large following and a distinct prestige, but it is with the desire to restore the old title 'Advance' that the change is made. For twenty-eight years The Deaf Advance, a nestor of deaf mute publications, was published at this institution and during all those years enjoyed a useful and honorable career, championing a cause which was at the time of its inception, without a journal to interpret it, though now has many to speak for it. In 1898 the name was changed to the New Era, and for the last four years has been published under that name.

"Going back to the former name, or rather, a part of it, does not, we hope, indicate that we are in any manner taking a backward step. On the contrary, as in the past our watchword is and will continue to be 'advance.'"

MATINEE MEETING.

The Gentlemen's Driving club will hold another matinee race meeting at the fair grounds Thursday, Sept. 24. An excursion will be run from Mt. Sterling for this occasion, and the Brown county people have promised to send over a good crowd. A fine racing card has been promised and no doubt the management will maintain the splendid reputation they have made at the last two matinees, and those who attend Thursday will witness a fine exhibition. Jeffries' band will be on hand to furnish music, and as the track has been worked constantly it will probably be in better condition than it has been at any time this season.

AN ANNIVERSARY DAY.

Saturday and Sunday were the 40th anniversary of the battle of Chickamauga, and the event was celebrated yesterday at Chattanooga by Wylders' brigade, who participated in that conflict. J. M. Ring and Capt. Horace Chapin, of this city, were among the participants, and it is there that Captain Chapin lost his leg. J. M. Ring Monday recalled the fact that for three days and nights he and his comrades stood under arms in the wet at Rossville gap, the weather being very cold, sufficiently so to freeze water. The days correspond to those of forty years ago, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 19 and 20.

COUNTRY CLUB

Holds Annual Meeting Monday Night Gratifying Report Made Election of Director.

The annual meeting of the Country club was held Monday evening at the club house. All the officers and about 100 members were present. The report of Treasurer C. G. Rutledge was heard and showed the club to be in a very flourishing condition, financially. It also showed a number of names on the waiting list for next year, and without doubt a large number will have to be disappointed. After the treasurer's report, President E. P. Kirby gave a comprehensive statement comprising a history of the club from its organization to the present time. Chairman J. G. Capps, of the house committee, next gave a verbal report and stated that whatever success had been achieved by the committee was due to the ladies, to whom he paid a high tribute for the intelligent manner in which they had conducted the catering department. He also recommended that the club adopt the table d'hôte bill of fare on Tuesdays and charge a minimum price for the same. E. Killen gave the report of the house committee in place of F. R. Robertson, chairman, who could not be present on account of illness. His report showed that several thousand dollars had been spent, mostly on permanent improvements. Two large garage tanks have been constructed, steam pumps installed, one horse mowing machine and a first class lawn roller.

The election of three directors followed and those elected for a term of one year were: C. G. Rutledge, Charles Phelps and George H. Seur. The present officers of the club are: President—E. P. Kirby. Vice president—J. G. Capps. Secretary and treasurer—C. G. Rutledge.

After a few speeches on the general affairs of the club the meeting adjourned.

At the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith, a few miles northeast of this city, and is an attractive and highly cultured young lady. The groom is a man of upright character and integrity. They will reside on the groom's farm near Loma.

The bride was attired in a becoming gown of white material and carried bride's roses. The bridal couple entered the parlor preceded by Edna Oliver, a cousin of the bride, who carried a basket of flowers strewn before the bride and groom.

After the words of sincere congratulation had been spoken the guests were invited to the dining room, where a bounteous repast was served and which testified to the fine ability of Mrs. Smith in the culinary art.

The bride is a young lady of many accomplishments and personal charms. The groom stands high in the community where he resides and is a man of integrity and uprightness of character.

Mr. and Mrs. Nunes left Monday night for Kansas City on their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends in Farmingdale after Oct. 15. Many handsome presents gave evidence of the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends.

WILL BUILD ROAD.

Burlington Extension Practically Assured—Officials go Over Proposed Right of Way Monday.

George H. Brennen, chief engineer of the Burlington system, and General Manager Crane of the J. & St. L., accompanied by three railroad contractors and several Burlington surveyors, went over the right of way of the proposed route between Jacksonville and Concord Monday.

It is practically decided that the new extension connecting the main line of the C, B. & Q. with the J. & St. L., part of the system, will be built and the contract for grading, etc., will probably be let in Chicago to day.

The Burlington will push the work of construction very rapidly in order to get the line completed for heavy traffic the latter part of the winter.

BARRY DEFEATED.

The attendance was very large Sunday at West Side park to see Barry and Jacksonville again cross bats for the seventh time, and in this game Jacksonville so far surpassed the visitors in playing ball that there was little doubt left but what Barry was clearly outclassed in playing the national game.

Jacksonville did some fine work with the bat and landed on Jeffries' benders in a manner that made the hit column look terribly bloated, for they piled up nineteen hits. The score stood 15 to 3 until the ninth inning, when, nearly everyone having left, the game was a drag and Barry got to hitting the ball into various localities and before they had made the third out they had succeeded in getting around the bases six more times. That was enough, however, and the score stood 15 to 9 in favor of Jacksonville. The score:

Jacksonville .. 2 0 0 1 1 4 5 2 0—15
Barry .. 1 0 0 0 0 0 2 6—9

Stolen bases—Barry, 3; Jacksonville, 8. Two-base hits—Brown, Hay, Livingston. Three-base hits—Jeffries, Cadigan, Franz, Livingston and Hackett. Home runs—Hazen. Double plays—Jeffries to Hay and Hagel to Hanchen to Magill. Bases on balls—Off Norris, 2; off Jeffries, 3. Hit by pitched balls—By Norris, 2. Passed balls—Cadigan, 1. Wild pitches—Jeffries, 2. Time of game—1:45. Umpire, Towers.

One of the most important requirements in a medicine to be given to small children should be that it is pleasant to take. Bad tasting medicines disturb the stomach, destroy the appetite and it is extremely difficult to get children to take them. The pleasant flavor of Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup, the certain cure for dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness, pleases the most sensitive persons and is the ideal laxative for young children. 25c and 50c bottles sold by Lee P.
